

WHY "PADDLER" LEFT ELMIRA.

New Board Reports that Brockway's System Was Wrong.

REFORM WAS NECESSARY.

Abandonment of Flogging Has Shown Good Results—Some Strong Facts.

(Special to The Evening World) ALBANY, Jan. 11.—The abandonment of Paddler Brockway's system of "padding" and "flogging" has not injured the Elmira Reformatory, according to the report of the new Board of Managers, made to the Legislature to-day with reference to Mr. Brockway's resignation of the post.

"As an illustration of this, the fact that Mr. Brockway found it necessary in June, 1900, to recommend to the Board the transfer to State prison of some eighty men, is worthy of note. In the opinion of the Board, many of these would not have become 'incorrigible' under wiser treatment."
